AT THE AUDITORIUM.

All New Vaudeville and Photoplays Today-Sterling Comedy Today.

At this time of the year the theatri-cal season is generally considered at its lowest point, but the Auditorium its lowest point, but the Auditorium management have not let the quality or quantity of its programmes drop behind the high standard set by this house, and consequently the patronage has not diminished in the slightest. New features have been offered and the public have not hesitated to take advantage of the good clean shows offered in a delightfully cool theatre.

Today's vaudeville is headed by Mack, Allbright & Mack, who offer one of those mixed-up farces that run at a speed of 60 laughis a minute. The act is constructed for laughing pirposes only and the average person is only too glad to smile away their daily troubles at a nonsensical farce such as this clever trio offer.

Landis & Knowles have an act that contains a surprise which it would be too bad to spell by advance mention;

Landis & Knowles have an act that contains a surprise which it would be too bad to spoil by advance mention: suffice to say that the dainty singing dancing and costume changes presented are up to the mark in every respect and the surprise adds additional in-

Eldridge, the comedy acrobat, must be made of rirbber, and he does the funniest falls seen outside of a Ster-ling comedy, which is going some. Our old friend, Ford Sterling, will be on the job again with a bunch of job entitled The Fatal Wedding. If Ford Sterling can't coax a laugh out of you, nobody can. Ford Sterling comedies will be a regular feature at this house every Monday and Tuesday, and Wel-nesday and Thursday in the future. The Mask of Affliction is an intense drama of the coal mines and it was made at the Paris studio of the Eclair company, which guarantees the artistic merit of this proto drama. Bob Leonard, the Rex favorite, will appear in The Awakening, a drama written, produced and acted by Bob

The above entertainment needs no advance boosting, as a good show is its own advertisement, and this show will

DAVIS THEATRE.

John Barrymore in An American Citizen, Famous Players Feature Today.

Comedy, and lots of it, is the pre-ominating feature of the bill booked r the first, balf of this week at this theatre. There is not one picture but what has some laughs, and no better tonic could be found for these sweltering hot days than a good laugh with pleasant, cool surroundings. The Fa-mous Players feature is An American Citizen, with the distinguished dia-matic favorite, John Barrymore, playing the leading role. An American Citizen is a delightful comedy-romance brimful of amusing situations that keeps the fun going all the while, a made to order marriage, a sudden change of nationality and a million complications. complications brings one laugh after another throughout the whole four reels of this production. Besides this feature, there is a pleasing selection of Mutual Movies; Blue Knot, King of Polo. is an American comedy drama with Edmer Boeseke and his famous polo pony appearing with the Ameri-can players; Such a Business is a Royal comedy that is a sure-fire laugh setter; the famous Mutual Weekly with all the latest news, and Love and Bullets, a Keystone comedy that is a corker, completes the picture programme. Manager Craig is back in harness again and will be heard with Mr. Boyle in a new reperfecter of severe harness again and will be heard with Mr. Boyle in a new repertoire of songs and duets that will come up to the high standard already set by these talented singers, who have become the town's favorites, and their singing is one of the pleasing features of the shows at the Davis. Bargain-matines every day at 2.39; balcony 5 cents, entire lower floor 10 cents. Deart missing tire lower floor 10 cents. Don't miss mprovement Society Votes Sum Toward Playground Equipment-Pionio Party from Eagleville-Two Profitable Sales.

The Ladies' Improvement society held a special meeting on the veranda of the E. A. Cleveland cottage, Saturday evening. The meeting was addressed by W. H. Grout, chairman of the committee on Recreation ground. She spoke in the interest of the playgrounds and of new equipment in which he hoped to interest the ladies. Among the new things provided this which he hoped to interest the ladies. Among the new things provided this year by the committee is an monframed four passenger swing. The committee would like to provide another tennis court, a shelter for the sand pile and tether ball. After Mr. Grout had finished speaking, he distributed cards concerning the play-grounds, which had been gotten out by the committee. Every camper realizes that this playground is a most realizes that this playground is a most valuable adjunct and fully appreciated by the childre.
